The Dallas Times-Herald says:
"We knew something was missing from the late primaries. Pat O'Keefe didn't dance a jig over the results." Pat has gone the way of the vanquished in Dallas county. He was a spectacular figure and danced everywhere while the bands were playing the jazz of political victory. We understand he went on the night of July 22. It was not as Alexander wept for he had conquered nothing—had lost all. Dallas county along in the 90's of the last century used to have another unique figure—Col.
Mark Ellison of Mesquite. His whiskers were three feet long and he had a peculiar warwhoop and when Charles Culberson was nominated for governor in 1894 he pulled a spectacular stunt as Jno. H. Reagan and S. W. Vanham went down. He did the same thing in 1890 when James S. Hogg defeated Gustave Cook at San Antonio and in 1892 when Hogg defeated George Warlick at Houston. Mark and Pat were characters in their day. But victors do not always come to the same end.
The best dancer and the fastest horse will finally be beaten. It is the inevitable—it is destiny.

To the question "When is a man a Mascot?" John Ford Newton replies: "When he can look out over the rivers, the hills and the far horizon with a profound sense of his own lit-tleness in the vast scheme of things and yet have faith, hope and courage which is the root of every virtue.
When he knows that deep down in his heart, every man is as noble, as valiant, as divine, as lovely, as himself; and seeks to know, to forgive and love his fellowman. When he knows how to sympathize with men in their sorrows, you even in their sins, knowing that each man fights a hard fight against many odds. When he has learned how to make friends and keep them, and above all to keep friends with himself. When he loves flowers, can hunt the birds without gun, and feels the thrill of an old fashioned joy when he hears the laughter of a little child. When he can be happy and high-minded amid the starry drudgeries of life. When starshine on trees and the glint of sunshine on waves and water subdue like the thought of much loved and long dead. When he has no voice of distress reaches his ear in vain and no hand seeks his aid without response. When he finds good in every faith that helps any man lay hold on divine things, and sees majesty meaning in life whatever the name of that faith may be. When he can look into a wayward puddle and see something beyond the mud, forlorn fellow mortal and see something beyond sin. When he knows how to pray; how to love; how to hope.
When he has kept faith with himself, with his fellowman; with his God; in his hand a sword of evil, in his heart a bit of song; glad to live and not afraid to die. Such a man found the only real secret of happiness and the one it is trying to find in this world."

MY CITY

My city is the place where my home is founded; where my business is situated; where my vote is cast; where my children are educated; where my neighbors dwell; and where my life is chiefly lived. It is the home spot for me. My city has a right to my civic loyalty. It supports me and I must support it. My city wants my citizenship, not partisanship; friendliness, not affishness; co-operation, not dissention; sympathy, not criticism; my intelligent support, not indifference. My city supplies me with law and order, trade, friends, education, morals, recreation and the rights of a free-born American. I should believe in my city and work for it.—Trade.

A WORD TO THE WISE

A number of newspaper correspondents in Washington and in the East in writing about the Texas senatorial situation involving Senator Chas. A. Culberson are making some very serious mistakes through ignorance or otherwise. It was published in the Eagle Monday from Washington that Senator Culberson's brave denunciation of the Ku Klux Klan cost him the senatorship. To prove this is a grave error the Eagle told out that in 1916 Oscar B. Colquitt led Culberson in the first primary 50-100 votes. Dr. S. P. Brooks and Thos. M. Campbell were neck-and-neck for third place. Senator Culberson in that campaign of six years ago did not receive one-fourth of the votes of Texas Democrats on the first race. But with Brooks and Campbell and Henry out that vote went to Culberson in the run-off and he defeated Colquitt by about 95,000 votes. Mr. Colquitt got all his votes in the first race.

The editor of the Eagle cast his first vote for Chas. A. Culberson for attorney general in Texas in 1890 and has voted for him for thirty years consistently for which he has no apologies, but at the same time it is not right that these lurid and inflammable editorial opinions should go out from Washington that Texas will be disfranchised, since Senator Culberson's defeat. It is not true. To those of us who have given our political support to Chas. A. Culberson in every roll call he has ever made and aided him originally for attorney general, governor of Texas and United States Senator, this free advice from Washington is only "sounding brass and tinkling cymbal." Let them de-slat—let them close their writings against Texas especially when they do not know and do not understand the political situation in Texas. Bril-liss based upon delusions are enough and the political tyrannical and the political tyrannical The Austin American seeks to enlighten as a "Hilly-Billie." The no doubt refers to a "hilly-billie." These are the men that come down the Perdonales with charcoal and cedar wood for sale. Before the Volstead act went into effect they brought their wares to town and stood their wagons on Pecan Street. Left their wives and children for hours in these wagons, remained in the beer saloons for what they called a good time, for many hours and until the closing time came. The "hilly-billie" is a wonderful varmint but the hilly-billie we know nothing of and the Americans should look him over.

From Nacogdoches comes the news that Eugene Blount has been easily elected to the state legislature. Mr.
Blount has never been a seeker of office. He is a business man of prominence. Men like that are an asset to the state body.—Dallas Times-Her-

TEXAS DOG RECEIVES GREAT ATTENTION

(By Associated Press.)

Austin, Texas, Aug. 2.—If a dog "Prevel in attention and glory, then very famous bull-dog at the University of Texas, should be overflowing with pride and conceit. "Pig" is little dog of L. T. Blount, athletic home of the University. Gohaunts the Univ. for his meals. Pig quite active in all campus. He is leading the band on all occasions, tightly yelping all the while, and is always present at student gatherings.
He goes to classes as regularly as any student, his courses being elected by the class-rooms offering the coolest sleeping spots. The campus is his domain and kingdom and woe to the dog who trespasses upon it. He is a docile animal with students and faculty members but fierce with intruding dog brothers.

"Pig" was named for the famous "Pig" Dittmar, University of Texas football player mentioned by Walter Camp as All-American material.
Dittmar played the four years ending in 1916. Pig, the dog, still roams the campus at will and probably continue to do so the rest of his natural life.
He is now as much of a landmark at the University as the main building.

TOTALLY DEPRAVED DALLAS WOMAN AND MAN MURDERED BABY

(Special to The Eagle)

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 2.—Forced to choose between her 2-day old baby and her husband, Mrs. Fay Hicks, 20 year old, chose the latter and left the infant to die on an ant hill near Summit Park, she confessed to officers here Monday. Both Mrs. Hicks and her husband, Frank Hicks, are being held on charges of conspiracy to commit murder. The baby, being cared for at Hope cottage, is in a serious condition as the result of being stung by hundreds of red ants.
"My husband and I were married on March 11, 1922," the woman told local detectives shortly after her arrest. "When the baby was born he told me that I must choose between him and the baby. He told me that if I kept the baby he would leave me.
So I took the little fellow to the woods near Summit Park and left him there. I do not think, however, that we could have kept him even if my husband had not objected and if he could not have afforded to." The baby was found early Saturday morning by a 15-year old boy living near the park and turned over to the police. It had been wrapped in a piece of old blanket but had rolled off onto the ground and was badly bruised when found. Large welts covered the infant's body where it had been stung by the ants and it was crying lustily when discovered.

TAX COLLECTORS ARE GIVEN NEW TAX RATE

Austin, Texas, Aug. 2.—Tax collectors throughout the state are being advised of the action of the State Automatic Tax board last Saturday in the fixing of the tax rate at 75 cents on the $100 property valuation, announced Comptroller Lon A. Smith.
As soon as the tax collectors receive the new rate which is an increase of 13 cents over 1921, they will begin figuring the taxes to be collected from taxpayers for 1922. Comptroller Smith pointed out that in increasing the ad valorem tax rate from 22 to 35 cents, the board was compelled to take the rural schools in consideration, as without adequate revenue it would have been impossible to take care of the schools for the coming year. It is the belief of the board that with this increase in the tax rate it will prove ample to take care of appropriations for the rural schools of the state, and may be possible for the legislature to appropriate not less than $4,000,000 for the next two fiscal years for the county schools.

Texas Cavalry Will Move To Austin By Train Soon

(Spec.)

Austin, Texas, August 2.—The Bryan Eagle 600 cavalymen of the Texas Cavalry campment which opens here August 30, has been abandoned and the brought to Camp Mabry by train, according to the adjutant general's department. The march overland was abandoned of the march overland was approximately 600 members of the 112th Cavalry from their respective stations on August 2 and 56th Cavalry will unite and proceed to go into camp. The march they Tyler and McKinney, the third from Dallas, followed by Tom Ennis, Waxahachie, Groesbeck, Houston and San Antonio responsible mobilization of the cavalry became necessary as mobilization of the strike, it was said, the march would delay such mo-was abandoned. It was chiefly for this reason that the overland trip is cheaper, as to transport the troops to Austin by train alwill be one of intending to officials. The encampment here having been completed, plans for the various courses number of regular army. The training will be directed by a tonio. The encampment was and instructors from San An-officers, composing seventeen include 990 men and sixty-eight Six hundred horses also will be sent to Camp Mabry to be used for instruction purposes and to Camp Mabry to be be in command of Brigadier General F. V. Coe.

FERGUSON OPENED SECOND SENATORIAL RACE AT WAXAHACHIE

Waxahachie, Texas, Aug. 2.— James E. Ferguson, former governor of Texas and second high candidate in the democratic primary for United States senator, delivered here Tuesday evening his first speech of the run-off primary. For the most part Mr. Ferguson did not enunciate any new views other than those he offered in the first primary campaign although devoting some time in discussing his opponent, Earle B. Mayfield, and his, Ferguson's well known stand on the Ku Klux Klan question.
Ferguson spoke in part as follows:

Ferguson Raises Klan Issue
"The democrats of Texas went to the polls on July 22, and expressed their choice for United States senator. An inspection of the returns shows that there was such disagreement of opinion as will necessitate a further expression from the people in order that a majority can say who will be the next Senator from Texas. Under the rules of the primary four candidates have been eliminated from the race, and the contest has now narrowed down to myself and the Honorable Earle B. Mayfield, the high Muckie-Muck of the Ku Klux Klan of Texas. He is running by consent of the king wizard from Atlanta, Georgia. I am running by consent of Farmer Jim from Temple, Texas.

"I am not unmindful of the strength of the opposition, I entered this campaign under, perhaps, the most peculiar conditions that ever surrounded any man who sought high office. As a result of trials, troubles and tribulations lasting more than six years, I found myself at the beginning of this year almost without purse or script. I gave up my Bell county farm of 1267 acres to pay the $156-000 that they said I got from the kaiser and the brewers. I gave up my bank to pay the depositors in full rather than have their interests jeopardized by official persecution, the most cruel that had ever befallen any man. I gave up my shorthorn cattle, near and dear to my heart, to satisfy the demand of money lenders and tax grabbers, and it will perhaps be only a few months that in line with the thousands of other cowmen in Texas to satisfy the greed of those who still pursue me, that I must give up my little ranch in Bosque county, and the last hoof of my herd must go to satisfy those who have said that I shall not prosper.

Discusses Klan Issue

"My friends, this is why I am opposed to the Ku Klux Klan and their crown prince candidate for the senate, Earle B. Mayfield. It is not from hearsay that I charge that this is the purpose of the Ku Klux Klan, but it is from the lips of their own prominent members who have begged me to join them that I make the charge that the effect of their purpose is to destroy the religious liberty of this country. The idea of appealing to the prejudice of men.
You ask me why I make this statement, you ask for proof? I realize the difficulty, when men hide their faces and move in the dark hours of night and meet in the secluded spots of the country, to identify and point out the character of the membership. Yes, I frankly admit there are many good people in the Ku Klux Klan, but there have also been many other good people who in some time of their lives, have been in bad company; and it is now time for them to wash their hands of the whole thing and come out into the sunlight of the day, and let the world see who they are. I charge Earle Mayfield is the candidate of the Ku Klux Klan. I charge that he is a member in sympathy with the purposes and plans of the politicians who are deceiving good men from the real purposes to seize this government for the benefit of greed and to crucify our people upon the altar of selfishness.
I challenge Earle Mayfield here and now to deny my charge. He goes around this country, flaunting the American flag in our faces and proclaiming that he is a 100 per cent American. When did he get the right to set the standard of patriotism in this county?
